CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Here are some follow-up questions to help you get the most out of today's Bible Message.
 If you're in a Connect Group, it would be helpful to read them beforehand and note down your thoughts.

(John 2:13-25)

- 1) What did you find most interesting, helpful or challenging from Sunday's message?
- 2) What do you think 'God's house' is now?
- 3) What would 'zeal for God's' house look like for you today?

4) How is Jesus as the new Temple really good news for people in our culture today?

5) Why is the resurrection of Jesus so important?

6) How would you try to convince someone who doesn't believe that Jesus rose from the dead?

PRAY

- Thank God that Jesus' death and resurrection make it possible for you to know him personally
- Ask God to make you more passionate about the things he is passionate about
- Pray for opportunities to talk about Jesus with people this week

Read Mark 11:12-25

1) When do the events of this passage take place in the life of Jesus?

2) What is Jesus' main complaint against the temple practices on this occasion?

3) How might Jesus telling the fig tree 'may no one ever eat fruit from you again' be linked to the temple?

4) Given the location of these events which mountain is Jesus' suggesting could be 'thrown into the sea'?

5) What are the implications of this passage for the temple in Jerusalem?

6) How does this passage enhance your view of Jesus?

CONNECT IN PRAYER

Outreach Events

- Pray for our forthcoming events: Charleston, WW1 Comedy Evening, Wine Tasting, Glen on Remembrance Sunday & our Christmas Events. Some will have a 'taste' of the gospel and some are purely social.
- Pray for good numbers of guests at each event, for God's guidance on who you could invite for the speakers presenting a short gospel message.
- Pray for many to hear the Gospel this autumn and to respond with faith.

Lesotho

- Thank God for the money raised for the Rehoboth church food Appeal.
- Pray for a better harvest next year and plenty of rain.

Social Action

- Pray for our ministries looking to help people in need: King's Friends, the Claydon house visiting team and the girl's drama club we are hoping to launch soon.
