CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Being Totally Honest

James 5:12

1) When was the last time you were not totally honest?

Read James 5:12

2) What part of Rich's message was most thought provoking and why?

Read Matthew 5:34-37

3) On a scale of 1-10 how truthful are you with:

a) your friends b) your colleagues c) your family

4) What are the reasons that cause you to be less than honest sometimes?

5) What reasons does Jesus give for prohibiting swearing oaths?

Read Hebrews 6:13-18

6) Why does this say God swore an oath?

7) How might this fit with James telling us not to swear oaths?

8) Why is it impossible for God to lie?

9) Are there other things God cannot do?

10) What do you think is the ultimate fulfillment of God's sworn promise to Abraham (v14)?

DIGGING DEEPER

Read Exodus 1:15-22

- a) How were the Hebrew midwives not being totally honest with Pharaoh?
- b) How did God view their conduct?
- c) Under what circumstances, if any, is it right not to be truthful?
- d) What situations like this might you personally find yourself in?

Read Genesis 37:2-11

- e) Why was Joseph disliked by his brothers?
- f) What do both of Joseph's dreams signify?
- g) How were these dreams actually fulfilled later in Joseph's life?
- h) Was Joseph being totally honest when he told his family about his dreams?
- i) In what ways was Joseph's honesty not a good idea?
- j) Are there times/situations where you need to think carefully before being totally honest?

CONNECT IN PRAYER

People in Need at Christmas Time

- Pray for the three food banks in Lewes and those who are helped by them: Landport, De Montfort and Malling (recently moved to King's).
- Pray for everyone preparing for the Christmas Day lunch and party for Senior Citizens, organized by Churches Together at the House of Friendship.
- Pray the lunch would be a great blessing to people who would otherwise be alone this Christmas.

Christmas Events at King's

- Pray for everyone involved in preparing for: Late Night Shopping, the Christmas Party, Family Craft & Carols, and the Carol Service.
- Pray that the invitations and posters might be used to good effect.
- Pray about who you could invite to a suitable event.
- For Late Night Shopping, pray for raised awareness of our church, our Christmas events and an opportunity to be a blessing to our community.
