CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Both Dead & Alive

Romans 6:1-11

1) When was the last time you resisted temptation and did the right thing?
How did you feel?

Read Romans 6:1-11

2) What did you find most helpful from Rich's message?

3) What do you think it means to be "baptised (or immersed) into Christ"?
How could this affect how you think and act?

4) In what ways could knowing you are 'dead to sin' and 'alive to God' help you personally live well as a Christian?

Read Colossians 2:6-15

5) How exactly does this passage say we are buried and raised with Christ?

6) What do you think it means to be 'dead in your sins'?

7) Why does Paul use circumcision as a metaphor for new life in Christ?

8) Write down as many things as you can that this passage tells us about Jesus and what he has done.

9) How would you explain each one simply in your own words?

10) Spend some time thanking Jesus for all he is and all he has done.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read Revelation 20:1-6

Revelation is true picture book of the Bible: it portrays things taught elsewhere in the Bible by symbols. e.g. Jesus as a lamb (5:6).

- a) What do you think do the following images represent? Why?
 - i) The dragon, ii) The key to the abyss, iii) The thrones
- b) Do you think the thousand years should be taken literally? Why?
- c) Who exactly are the ones seated on the thrones? Is this literal or do they represent others?
- d) How might Romans 6:1-11 and Colossians 2:6-15 help us understand v4-6?
- e) Why are there two resurrections in the passage?
- f) What do you think the second death is? (and the first?)
- g) Who exactly are the ones who share in the first resurrection?
- h) Explain how this passage is really encouraging for:
 - i) Christians being persecuted for their faith
 - ii) Yourself
- i) Take some time to praise God for Jesus and what it meant for him to represent us and all that it achieved.
