CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

The mercy of God vs. the —isms of our culture

Romans 12:1-2

1) What is mercy and how much do you think mercy is valued in our society? When might you see it in action?

2) How did you feel God was speaking to you through Natalie's message on Sunday?

Read Romans 12:1-2

3) Do you spend much time reflecting on God's mercy? What has God's mercy towards you meant to you?

4) How does pondering God's mercy shape how we act towards others and what we think of them?

5) To what extent do you recognise individualism, materialism and cynicism in your own heart?

6) What steps will you take to ensure the way you think is characterised more by God's mercy than by the —isms of our culture?

7) What practical steps will you take to increasingly focus on community, generosity and mercy in how you act towards others?

Read Luke 4:14-21

8) How did the Holy Spirit equip Jesus to fulfil this prophecy from Isaiah (v18-19)? What did it look like in the life and work of Jesus?

9) How might the empowering of the Holy Spirit help a Christian to imitate Jesus in relation to the poor and needy?

10) Pray for a merciful heart, more like Jesus and the empowering of the Spirit to change how you think about and act towards those in need.

CONNECT IN PRAYER

Alpha & Food for Thought Follow up

- Thank God for the 14 guests at Food for Thought and that everyone booked in came.
- Pray for our ongoing conversations and that God would work through the seeds planted by Glen's talk.
- Pray for a full Alpha Course, with a good number coming as a result of Food for Thought.

Rich

- Thank God for the progress and recovery Rich has made.
- Pray for continued healing and a full recovery for Rich.
- Pray that the proposed phased return to work would work well and not result in any set-backs.
- Pray for wisdom for the elders and trustees as they try to care for Rich and bring him back to work in a sustainable way.
